Jaime Oaxaca

This award is the highest national award given by the Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers (SHPE) to a SHPE member. This prestigious award recognizes the unselfish and outstanding contributions of an honoree in the fields of engineering and science and in the Hispanic American Community.

The honoree's activities, carried on continuously over a period of years bring honor and esteem to the Society by their very character. He or she symbolizes as does the name sake Jaime Oaxaca, the ideal role model to our youth today by preaching aloud that "it can be done".

The candidate must meet the following criteria: SHPE regular status for three (3) years. Has not received this award in the last five (5) years. Shown dedication and commitment to the advancement of the Society's growth.

Junipero Serra

A high national award given by the Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers (SHPE) to a person or persons being recognized for their unique and outstanding contribution in the fields of engineering, science or related management, administration and education.

Padre Junipero Serra, a giant figure in the settlement of the Pacific West, networked a string of missions across the California's. Father Serra was a zealous and courageous Franciscan missionary who traveled thousands of miles in the face of appalling hardships to found his missions. He ventured into unknown lands to bring faith to the unbelieving.

The recipients of the Junipero Serra Award have demonstrated over a period of years a similar pioneering spirit by their innovative feats which has lead to the advancement of Engineering and Science.
